300 TO MAKE TRIP

THAT NUMBER OF NORMAL STUDENTS TO TAKE OUTING.

WILL RIDE HAY WAGONS

Old Fashioned Conveyances to Take Students From Conception to the Monastery.

It is expected that 300 Normal students will make the trip Saturday to the St. Benedictine convent at Clyde and the Engleberg abbey at Conception on a sight-seeing trip. The Normal faculty, headed by President Taylor, will be the chaperons. The party will leave Maryville on the Wabash train at 10:52, and five coaches have been set aside for the use of the students. They will take along their lunches, which will be eaten at Clyde.

According to the program arranged the party will first visit the convent. They will look at the model printing office which is at that place and also see the many other interesting sights. At the present time an addition is being built to the convent.

From the convent they will then go to the monastery at Conception. The trip will be made in hay wagons. At the monastery Fr. Patrick will give a short talk and Fr. Charles an organ recital. The party will then return to Clyde in the hay wagons, and the return trip made to Maryville, arriving here at 7:11 p. m.

No school will be held at the Normal Saturday after 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Classes will meet at 7:10 a. m., or ten minutes earlier than usual, and the recitation periods will be for only forty minutes.

President Taylor gave a talk to the students this afternoon about the historical and architectural value and what could be seen on the trip.

MANUFACTURING HER STOCK.

How George Sand Secured Donation From Rothschild.

A favorite amusement of society in Victorian days, says Lady Dorothy Neville, was the bazar. Many great ladies became expert in the art of wheedling visitors into paying generous sums for useless articles. However, the victim of "brigandage" named by Lady Dorothy—in "Under Five Reigns"—himself invited disaster, and was, besides, quite able to afford it.

One of the most ingenious stratagems every employed at a bazaar was probably that devised by the famous writer George Sand, when holding a stall at a charitable sale in favor of distressed Poles.

Baron James de Rothschild happened to pass, the fair saleswoman addressed him with the usual request to purchase something.

"What can I buy?" asked the baron. "You have nothing that I can do anything with. But stay! an idea strikes me. Give me your autograph. Sell me that."

Mme. Sand promptly took a sheet of paper and wrote: "Received from Baron James de Rothschild the sum of 1,000 francs for the benefit of the distressed Poles. George Sand."

M. de Rothschild read it, thanked her and, presenting a note for the sum mentioned, passed on with the autograph.—Youth's Companion.

COMMITTEE TO MEET TONIGHT.

And Will Set a Date and Discuss Other Matters for the Street Fair.

The street fair committee will meet tonight in the office of Attorney Ellis G. Cook to decide on a date when the street fair in Maryville will be held this year. The date had been fixed for the third week in September, but several objected to this time and wanted it later, or about the first week in October. All those interested either in the street fair or the question of dates are asked to attend the meeting.

Other plans will also be discussed relative to the fair, and within the next week or so solicitors will be out raising money for the event.

Mrs. Harry Egan, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, the past three weeks, returned to her home in Kansas City Friday morning.

BREWSTER OUT OF THE RACE.

Only Two Candidates Now in the Race for the Republican Nomination for Governor.

A W. Brewster, who filed early last winter as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, notified Cornelius Roach, secretary of state, Thursday that he no longer was a candidate, and requested him not to print his name on the primary ballots.

Mr. Brewster said some time ago he feared his law business would interfere with his making a campaign. About five weeks ago he became ill with rheumatism and has been unable to attend to his business since.

The withdrawal of Mr. Brewster from the gubernatorial race leaves the Republican contest open to John E. Swanger, state bank commissioner, and John C. McKinley. Mr. Brewster's friends, it is understood, will support Mr. Swanger in the race.

WILL HELP RURAL EDUCATION.

School Amendment Will Aid the Weak Districts and Consolidation of Schools.

The proposed school fund amendment to be voted on at the November election will pave the way for the state to do one or all of ten important things to benefit the public schools of the state. The additional fund would permit:

Aid in establishing rural high schools.

Aiding weak high schools in villages and towns.

Providing general state aid for high schools.

Guarantee the opportunity for a free high school education to every graduate of the elementary and rural school.

Consolidation of schools.

Encouraging teaching of agriculture, manual training, domestic science, domestic art and other practical and cultural subjects in high schools.

Guaranteeing a good teacher and a reasonable school term to every school district.

Purchase of libraries and other school equipment.

Reward of efficiency and effort in school work.

Aid to rural schools in meeting the demands of rural life.

Many rural teachers have been trained in the very schools they are teaching and are without even a high school, normal or university training. The school districts are often too sparsely settled to get a decent sum from the constitutional limit for taxes to pay for a four months school term. There are hundreds of school houses costing less than $300 each.

The rural school house is often unsanitary, cold and the cause of sickness to the children attending classes. There are many instances in Missouri where children of tender years are compelled to travel over poor, lonely, muddy or snow filled highways six and seven miles to reach the school house. With the adoption of the school amendment practically every instance of this kind could be avoided by the state assisting in furnishing conveyances and consolidating the school districts.

SOLD FOR $7,500.

The McNellis Building and Vacant Lot on East Third Street Sold to John Kane Thursday.

John Kane purchased Thursday the building and the vacant lot east of the building on East Third street of Patrick McNellis at a consideration of $7,500. Mr. Kane is at present conducting his saloon in the west half of the building.

Miss Minnie Gee returned to her home in Rosendale Friday morning from a two days' visit with Miss Elizabeth Pettijohn, a State Normal student.

Captain James Ewing of Hopkins was a business visitor in Maryville Friday, also visiting his son and daughter, Frank Ewing and Mrs. R. E. Snodgrass, and their families.

SOLDIERS TO CAMP

CO. F BOYS LEAVE SATURDAY AFTERNOON FOR NEVADA.

WILL REMAIN ONE WEEK

Annual Maneuvers of State Militia Requires Presence of Boys at Bad Time of Year.

Company F, Fourth regiment, N. G. M., leaves Maryville at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the Burlington for the camp of instruction to be held at Nevada, Mo., from the 13th to the 20th. The Fourth regiment is made up of the following companies: Company A at Tarkio, B at Unionville, C at Kirksville, D at Trenton, E at Hannibal, F at Maryville, G at Columbia, K at St. Joseph and M at Moberly. The Second regiment will also be in camp during the same time as the Fourth regiment.

Maryville, St. Joseph and Tarkio companies compose the first battalion and will go from St. Joseph to Nevada in a special car. The train will arrive in Nevada at 12:30 a. m. Sunday morning and the troops will detrain at 5:30 that morning.

It goes without saying that the soldier boys of Maryville will have some real experience of army life at the encampment this year and will enjoy themselves thoroughly. The army officers detailed with the National Guard this year have pronounced the present camp one of the most sanitary and healthful camps they have ever seen, and it has been called "The Health Resort." The visit of the troops to Nevada each year is looked upon as one of the gala events, and on Thursday, Governor's day, spectators to the number of 10,000 come out and view the ceremonies. We hope to hear great news of the doings of the local company boys at the camp this year.

The members of Company F are: Captain, Ezra Phipps; first lieutenant, Lester A. Bennett; second lieutenant, P. B. Charles; first sergeant, Loren De Motte; quartermaster sergeant, Walter Miller; sergeants, Guy Ray, Marion Smith, Ernest Yeaman, Clarence Phipps; corporals, John K. Ross, Clifford Skinner, Wood Forcade, Charles Cornell, Leroy Snipes; privates, John Irby, James Borroughs, Wilbur Dunbar, Hartford Lemon, George Liston, Hershel Conklin, Benny Myers, Victor Pinnell, Fred Shell, Charles Still, Charles Wilson, Jess Ray, Claud Curtis, Carl Curtis, Roy Brummitt, Arch Ledgerwood; cooks, Rufus Palmer and Foyes Smith, colored.

The local officers say that this camp is set at a very hard time, as a great many of the members are boys on the farm, and the heavy work at this time makes it impossible for some to get away.

HURT IN A BALL GAME.

In the Game Between the Cubs and Giants Thursday at the Normal Will Marshall Was Hurt.

In a game of base ball Thursday afternoon between the Cubs and Giants, two base ball teams of the Normal school, Will Marshall, while running from second to third base, was hit in the back with the base ball. The injury is not a serious one and Mr. Marshall will be able to resume his studies at the Normal in a day or so. The Cubs won the game Thursday by a score of 8 to 2.

The Pirates and Athletics, two other teams of the Normal, are playing this afternoon at the base ball grounds.

Training School Closed.

The training school closed Friday at the Normal.

THE WEATHER

Unsettled weather with probably local thunder showers tonight or Saturday; not much change in temperature.

TOURING THE STATE

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE TO VISIT THIS SECTION WEDNESDAY.

GOVERNOR IN THE PARTY

Boosting for Good Roads and Getting Better Acquainted Object of the Trip.

The state board of agriculture will tour this section of the state next week in automobiles for the purpose of helping to boost and agitate good roads, to better acquaint the state board with road conditions and for an exchange of friendly relationship between the board and Northwest Missouri.

The schedule for Maryville and this part of the state has been made out, but will probably be changed. The party is to be in Maryville on Wednesday, July 17, and will take dinner here at the Linville hotel. Governor Hadley will probably be with the party.

The tour will leave the Automobile club offices, Midland building, Kansas City, at 10:30 a. m., Tuesday, in two divisions. One division will go over the Platte purchase route and the other over the Interstate trail to St. Joseph, where they will remain for the night. They will leave St. Joseph at 8 a. m., Wednesday, the Platte purchase division going over the Saints Highway to Maryville and then to Tarkio, and the Interstate trail division going over the Interstate trail to Bethany and then to Grant City. The Platte purchase division will return to St. Joseph over the St. Joseph-Omaha road and the Interstate trail division over the Mt. Ayr line.

It is hoped that local cars will join the tour wherever and whenever they may desire and help to call attention to Missouri's greatest need—good roads. Drivers of local cars are requested to always drop in at the rear of the line of cars and, in order to further prevent confusion and accidents, will refrain from passing ahead of any cars leading them, and to keep a good interval between cars while in motion. No cars should be in lead of the official cars. Official cars are those carrying members of the state board of agriculture or their invited committee guests.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Returned From "Home Coming."

Mrs. Omar Catterson returned Thursday night from Lebanon, In., where she attended the great home coming of natives of Boone county, July 2-4. On the 4th of July Boone county's new $300,000 court house was dedicated in the presence of the greatest crowd of people ever gathered in Lebanon. Mrs. Catterson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Susanna West, while there, and also visited other relatives and met many old friends and schoolmates.

Mission Circle Picnic.

The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the First Christian church met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon in a short business session and elected officers for the coming year, or rather re-elected their officers, as each was chosen to succeed herself, as follows: Mrs. J. S. Shinabargar, president; Mrs. Arch Frank, vice president; Miss Nellie Douglas, secretary; Mrs. J. D. Richey, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Condon, pianist; Mrs. Lee Crossan, assistant pianist. After the business meeting all went to Chautauqua park and held the Circle's annual picnic, which are always enjoyable affairs.

Met With Mrs. Hutchison.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. O. Hutchison, 603 West Third street, with twenty members present. The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. F. M. Martin. Subject, "Hope"—Romans 8:24. Two excellent papers were read, one by Mrs. C. D. Leffler on "Home Mission Schools" and the other by Mrs. O. L. Holmes on "How the Chains Are Broken." A quiz on the Philippines was conducted by Mrs. S. E. Farmer, the president of the society. The committee serving during the social hour comprised Mrs. J. A. Ford, Mrs. F. M. Martin and Mrs. A. B. Gibson.

Society Will Take Vacation.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. Price, with Mrs. Price and Mrs. S. M. Simpson as hostesses. Much business was transacted during the afternoon. The society voted $10 to the new M. E. church at New Conception, also voted to resume its Saturday markets, beginning Saturday, July 20, and also decided to take a vacation during the month of August, on account of the Chautauqua. A program was given after the business meeting. Matie Price, daughter of the hostess, recited "Two Little Girls I Know," and Mrs. Fred McClaron also gave a reading, "Penny Sad and Penny Glad." Miss Isora Mutz sang "Winter Lullaby." During the serving of refreshments Matie Price gave several numbers on the player piano.

Will Attend Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Shoemaker and their daughter, Miss Esther, and Mr. Oliver Bovard will leave Saturday for Lawson, Mo., where they will attend the wedding of Miss Marguerite Watkins to Mr. David Shoemaker Boyd of Omaha. The wedding will take place Sunday, July 14, at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Watkins. The bride and groom will leave for the east soon after the ceremony. Both Miss Watkins and Mr. Boyd are well and most favorably known to Maryville's young society folk. Miss Watkins has been a house party guest at the Shoemaker home each summer for the past four years in company with four other girls, her sister, Miss Caroline Watkins; Miss Ted Okell and Miss Louise Sallander of Fort Madison, Ia., and Miss Olive Lattin of Terre Haute, Ind., who is now Mrs. Gordon Murray of Muskogee, Okla. These annual house parties at the old Shoemaker home are well remembered by our young people, for they brought many good times for two and four weeks at a time each summer. The hostess and her guests were classmates at Hardin college, Mexico, Mo. The bridegroom-to-be is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker, and the only son and heir of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Boyd of Kansas City, who are also frequent visitors to our city. He is a specialty man for the Armour Packing company, with headquarters in Omaha. He visits the principal cities of the country for his company and is considered one of the company's most valuable men in his line of work.

Rebekahs Installed Officers.

There was a large attendance of the members of Alert Rebekah lodge Thursday night, when the new officers were placed in office. The lodge opened with Mrs. Nettie Warren, noble grand, presiding. After the regular business session Mrs. Laura Moore, district deputy president, conducted the installation ceremonies, assisted by Mrs. Amanda Sipes, grand marshal; Mrs. Jennie Thompson, past noble grand, and Mrs. Warren, retiring noble grand. The elective officers are Mrs. Dora Vert, noble grand; Mrs. Verna Murphy, vice grand. The appointive officers are Mrs. Amanda Sipes, right supporter to the noble grand; Mrs. Mary Woods, left supporter to the noble grand; Miss Oma Robey, right supporter to the vice grand; Mrs. Zetta Broyles, left supporter to the vice grand; Mrs. Laura Moore, chaplain; Mrs. Dovia Howland, warden; Miss Permelia Eads, conductor; Mrs. Myrtle Whaley, outside guard; Miss Nannie Pride, inside guard; Miss Rose Frazee, musician. After the installation a delightful ice cream and cake luncheon was served by the subordinate lodge, the I. O. O. F., which the Rebekahs highly appreciated. There were a large number of visitors present from St. Joseph, Wilcox and Burlington Junction, a number of them State Normal students.

Friday Morning Domino Party.

Mrs. M. A. Lewis and Mrs. Emery Airy gave their second domino party Friday morning at Mrs. Airy's home, in honor of Mrs. Joel B. Hayden. Fifty guests were present. The decorations were the same as on Thursday morning and the same color scheme of green and white was carried out in the serving. The game prize, a hand-painted china plate, was won by Mrs.

OFFICERS AFTER HIM

TRACES OF AL MARTZ FOUND IN ST. JOSEPH BY OFFICIAL.

WAS MARRIED AGAIN?

He is Wife Deserter and Bigamist if Second Marriage Occurred to Mrs. Anderson.

The authorities today are on the track of Al Martz, the man who deserted his wife in Maryville this week and an arrest will be made if he is found. Traces of Martz was found in St. Joseph Thursday by Chief of Police Moberly, and on Friday Sheriff Tilson went to that city and will probably return with the man.

The officials learned last night that Martz went to St. Joseph with Mrs. Anderson, who lived on East Second street. In a letter written to her brother, Ed Moore, she states that she was married to Martz on Tuesday evening at the court house at St. Joseph, but on examining the marriage license records in that city their names can't be found, according to one of the officials who looked over the records. In the letter she told her brother that she would send for her seven children the last of the week, and that Martz and her had taken rooms in that city, but she did not give the address.

Mrs. Martz and her baby, born Saturday, were taken to St. Francis hospital late Thursday afternoon, arrangements having been made by the charity board. Her two other children, a girl 4 years old and a boy 18 months old, were given to Mrs. Hiram Edwards of East Fourth street, who will care for them at present.

If Martz married Mrs. Anderson, as stated in her letter, he will be charged with another crime, that of bigamy. In the letter received by Mrs. Moore, her sister stated that Martz told her that his wife had died a year ago and that he was a single man. There is another charge against Martz, that of wife desertion.

OPERATION FAILED.

B. L. Moore, Unable to Withstand Shock, Died Thursday.

Burton Llewellyn Moore, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Clearmont, died at St. Francis hospital Thursday night, after an illness since Monday, July 1.

Mr. Moore was stricken suddenly with appendicitis last Monday, and he was brought to St. Francis hospital Monday afternoon by his physician, Dr. W. B. Heryford of Clearmont. He rallied considerably after reaching the hospital, and it was thought for a while that an operation would not be necessary, but he grew worse and the operation was found necessary to prolong his life. Owing to his advanced age he was unable to rally from the operation. He had been in good health previous to his illness.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Moore family home in Clearmont, and will be conducted by Rev. C. H. Owens of the Clearmont Baptist church.

Mr. Moore was 79 years old the 30th of June.

He was born near Trenton, Tenn., and came to the Clearmont country and settled there as a farmer fifty years ago, and had been a resident of this county ever since. He followed farming a number of years, and then went into the hardware business in Clearmont, but retired a good many years ago.

Forty-seven years ago he married Miss Mildred Carpenter of Clearmont, a sister of the late George Carpenter of that place, who survives her husband at the age of 70. Six children were born to them, all of whom are living, and are George Moore of Fort Smith, Ark.; James Moore of Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. John Burch of Clearmont; William Moore, at home in Clearmont, and Mrs. Albert Neidel, living north of Maryville.

Mr. Moore was a member of the Masonic lodge at Clearmont.

On Trip to the East.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crow will leave Saturday for a month's trip through the east. They will attend the national photographers' convention at New York City, and will spend a greater part of their time in the east in that city.

It is probably true, as stated in the article from the American Issue reprinted in The Democrat-Forum Thursday, that the brewing interests of the state would be greatly pleased to see Anderson Craig defeated for the state senate, but we believe the article does Mr. O. B. Hudson a gross injustice by making him appear to be, by inference, at least, the candidate of the brewing interests. Mr. Hudson is known as a high minded man, a good citizen, and one in every respect worthy of the confidence and suffrage of the Democratic voters. It was not our purpose in publishing the article to cast any aspersions whatever on Mr. Hudson, but rather to show that Mr. Craig's course in the senate had been correctly foretold by the enemies he made while a member of the house.

THE LIFE OF A NEWSPAPER MAN.

With the job of the newspaper man travels a silent companion. Trouble is him name and Work is his sister. Seven days out of six old man Trouble is on the job and the rest of the time his sister looks after his interest. The newspaper man is between the devil and the deep blue sea during his waking hours and the chances are that his dreams are distributed by gaunt specters of the day's events. If he asks questions he is impertinent, and if not he does not know his business. If he is observant, he is nosey and if not he cannot deliver the goods. If he hangs around he is in the way and if not something is sure to happen while he is away. He must depend on others for information and if he does they forget to tell him. If he honors official requests to suppress that story about Bill Jones because Bill's first wife was a second cousin of a dear friend of Soandso, he is a good fellow, but he is not doing his duty to his paper or to the public. He depends on the official for his information, but he depends also on the paper for his salary. If he suppresses the story he is looking for another job, and if he does not he does not get the news.

A preacher in Los Angeles once delivered a violent sermon in which he denounced the newspapers and all of those connected with them as liars and crooks. The next day they offered him the city editor's desk of one of the great dailies in order that he might see the conditions under which a newspaper was made. He held down the desk two hours and then made a public apology, saying that men who would work day in and day out under such a strain as did the staff of a newspaper were almost inhuman and due allowance should be made if they made mistakes.—Exchange.

ARCHBALD GOT BUT ONE VOTE

Personal Friend in House Showed Confidence in Accused Judge.

SENATE WILL SIT IN JUDGEMENT

House Adopted Articles of Impeachment by Vote of 222 to One—May Recess Till November Before Beginning Trial.

Washington, July 12.—The house of Representatives adopted, by a vote of 222 to 1, articles of impeachment against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States commerce court.

Representative Farr of Pennsylvania cast the single vote against the bill of impeachment. Mr. Farr is a lifelong friend, who has all along voiced confidence in Judge Archbald's integrity. Only three members had spoken in the judge's defense. They were Farr, Bowman and Focht, of Pennsylvania.

The scene now shifts to the senate, which will sit in judgment in the case.

Disposition to Delay.

While there has been a disposition voiced in the senate to postpone the trial until the autumn, Chairman Clayton of the house committee on the judiciary and one of the prosecuting managers, declared his conviction that the senate would take up the impeachment soon.

Senator Clark of Wyoming, Republican, chairman of the senate judiciary committee, and Senator Simmons of North Carolina, the Democratic leader, expressed the view that the senate would acquiesce with Judge Archbald's wishes as to having an immediate trial or being allowed time to prepare his defense.

Before Senate Monday.

Among some of the Republican leaders it was suggested that while the case probably would be presented formally to the senate next Monday, that body might not do more now than to determine the date of the trial, and that the senate might recess until November, then proceeding with the hearing, with a probability of completing the case before the Christmas holidays.

The impeachment grows out of charges that, while occupying a federal bench, Judge Archbald was connected with a negotiation for valuable culm bank properties in Pennsylvania and with other questionable financial transactions, and with using his official position to attempt the enrichment of himself and certain friends.

Farr Demands Quorum.

For the opposition to the impeachment, Representative Farr bore the brunt of the battle. He demanded a quorum at the outset, saying the judge was virtually on trial for his life. Only three score members were present. Mr. Clayton insisted that the membership were thoroughly familiar with the evidence.

Representative Sterling of Illinois said he first thought the charges were trumped up by "disappointed litigants or disgruntled lawyers," but now he felt the testimony sustained the impeachment counts.

MINE EXPLOSION KILLS EIGHT

After Accident Two Men Are Brought Out Alive, But Severely Burned.

Moundsville, W. Va., July 12.—Eight miners are believed to have been killed by a gas explosion in the Panama mine of the Ben Franklin Coal company here.

Immediately after the explosion a rescue party penetrated the workings and returned with William Hupp and Joe Minalin, miners, who were so severely burned it is believed they cannot survive.

Another rescue party was sent into the mine later, but with small hope of finding other men alive.

Lindsey Refuses "Dry" Offer.

Enid, Ok., July 12.—Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver refused to allow his name to be placed before the National Prohibition convention as a candidate for president, stating that his alliance with the Progressive party made the acceptance impossible. The offer, coming apparently from a number of friends in the convention, was telegraphed to Mr. Lindsey here.

Montreal, Ga., July 12.—Ninety-five funerals were held here and the majority of those buried were victims of the recent hot spell. Eighty of the dead were children. The demand for hearses exceeded the supply.

Four Injured in Strike.

Toledo, O., July 12.—Three men were shot, two seriously and one severely hurt by a thrown brick here in a riot between non-union teamsters, strikers and sympathizers. The police arrested 15.

J. W. Morris, Candidate for Representative on the Democratic Ticket.

J. W. MORRIS.

To the Democratic Voters of Nodaway County, Missouri:

I wish to take this means of further announcing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for representative of this county, subject to your decision at the primary election held August 6th. It is almost needless to say that I have been a life-long advocate of the principles of Democracy. That the teachings of Democracy are and have been correct needs no further proof than the fact that a strong following of the Republican party are now willing to correct the many wrongs the Democracy of this country have been clamoring for, if given a chance. I am still willing to stand on the platform of my party and the principles enunciated therein; I still have faith that when the state platform is adopted it will contain and deal with such matters that every plank will be a jewel; that it will be big enough, broad and good enough that every good citizen will not be able to find fault. Therefore I have no hesitancy in stating in advance that it will please me.

If the Democrats of Nodaway county honor me with this nomination and the people of the county elect me to this office it will be the pride and ambition of my life to make a little history for Nodaway county in the coming legislature. Having made the race in 1896 for railroad and warehouse commissioner of this state, and coming within a few votes of getting the nomination, I had the opportunity to form an extensive acquaintance in almost every county in the state. This, in connection with the further fact that Missouri will have a Democratic governor and an overwhelming majority in the legislature, would give me an opportunity to accomplish more for the county and state than could one who has not had the experience and wide acquaintance required in order to do things in such a body of lawmakers.

Should I be your choice for representative, I shall not be subject to embarrassment by ante-election promises. I shall try to represent the whole county, and be governed by your expressions. I believe we are now burdened with too many laws, and that great good could be accomplished for the people of the state by the repeal of many of our statutes and the amendment of others. I am in favor of amending the automobile law so that instead of the license being paid into the state treasury it should be paid into the county treasury where the applicant resides, and the money thus paid become a part of a good road fund. This would be quite an income for above purpose, and would put the license money where it should go. I would be in favor of amending the inheritance tax law so that said income would go to the good roads fund, the same as the automobile license money. I would take great pride in looking after our Normal school, so that it would not be hindered or weakened by lack of financial support.

Having spent several years as a teacher in the schools of this and other states, I have the greatest interest in our public schools. I believe the rural school should be so developed that any boy or girl who must depend on them wholly for their educational development will not be compelled to go through life handicapped. I consider them of greatest importance, and anything suggested to make our country schools better will receive my most honest and hearty support. This in a general way gives you some idea of the line of work I would be interested in if elected to this important position. If my platform is in harmony with your views, when you go to the primary August 6th cast your vote for John W. Morris for representative.

Very respectfully,
J. W. MORRIS.

It Will Be a Good Year

Corn, wheat, oats, potatoes, tobacco and all the other staple products of the farm promise a larger yield this year than last, according to the July bulletin of the department of agriculture, and the season is now so well advanced that the promise of July is reasonably certain of complete fulfillment at the end of the harvest.

The prosperity of the country at large is bound up with the prosperity of the farmer, and since this is to be a good year for him it will be a good year all around. After the farmer sells he buys, and so the effects of a bountiful harvest diffuse themselves throughout every class.

But the signs that this is to be a good year for the moral and political well being of the people are no less certain than those which presage a good year for crops. The forces opposed to the monopolistic control of industry and to the inequality of tariff protection were never better united than now, while on the other side there is disorganization and bitterness.

The people have decided that laws which give one class advantage over another in securing for themselves the products of industry and the gifts of nature are wrong and that they shall be changed so that the profits of this prosperous year and of the years to come shall stay where they belong and not be absorbed into the pockets of privilege.—St. Louis Republic.

Miss Lillian Clark, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. T. Clark, and family at the Linville, returned to her home in Savannah Thursday evening.

A Hard Winter Coming?

The severe weather last winter killed many domestic or "tame" fruit trees and shrubs, but it seems to have stimulated wild growths to unprecedented vigor of production. The walnut and hickory nut trees in Fairmount park are burdened, and the nuts are nearly twice as large as is usual at this season. The haws and wild crabapples hang in innumerable clusters, and birds already are feasting on the most generous supply of mulberries ever known in this locality.

There is a prophecy of another severe season next winter if an old sign proves true. The pine trees in the park are producing a crop of cones conspicuous for their size and numbers, a certain indication, the weather wise say, that a hard winter is in prospect.—Kansas City Star.

300 TO MAKE TRIP

THAT NUMBER OF NORMAL STUDENTS TO TAKE OUTING.

WILL RIDE HAY WAGONS

Old Fashioned Conveyances to Take Students From Conception to the Monastery.

It is expected that 300 Normal students will make the trip Saturday to the St. Benedictine convent at Clyde and the Engleberg abbey at Conception on a sight-seeing trip. The Normal faculty, headed by President Taylor, will be the chaperons. The party will leave Maryville on the Wabash train at 10:52, and five coaches have been set aside for the use of the students. They will take along their lunches, which will be eaten at Clyde.

According to the program arranged the party will first visit the convent. They will look at the model printing office which is at that place and also see the many other interesting sights. At the present time an addition is being built to the convent.

From the convent they will then go to the monastery at Conception. The trip will be made in hay wagons. At the monastery Fr. Patrick will give a short talk and Fr. Charles an organ recital. The party will then return to Clyde in the hay wagons, and the return trip made to Maryville, arriving here at 7:11 p. m.

No school will be held at the Normal Saturday after 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Classes will meet at 7:10 a. m., or ten minutes earlier than usual, and the recitation periods will be for only forty minutes.

President Taylor gave a talk to the students this afternoon about the historical and architectural value and what could be seen on the trip.

MANUFACTURING HER STOCK.

How George Sand Secured Donation From Rothschild.

A favorite amusement of society in Victorian days, says Lady Dorothy Neville, was the bazar. Many great ladies became expert in the art of wheedling visitors into paying generous sums for useless articles. However, the victim of "brigandage" named by Lady Dorothy—in "Under Five Reigns"—himself invited disaster, and was, besides, quite able to afford it.

One of the most ingenious stratagems every employed at a bazaar was probably that devised by the famous writer George Sand, when holding a stall at a charitable sale in favor of distressed Poles.

Baron James de Rothschild happened to pass, the fair saleswoman addressed him with the usual request to purchase something.

"What can I buy?" asked the baron. "You have nothing that I can do anything with. But stay! an idea strikes me. Give me your autograph. Sell me that."

Mme. Sand promptly took a sheet of paper and wrote: "Received from Baron James de Rothschild the sum of 1,000 francs for the benefit of the distressed Poles. George Sand."

M. de Rothschild read it, thanked her and, presenting a note for the sum mentioned, passed on with the autograph.—Youth's Companion.

COMMITTEE TO MEET TONIGHT.

And Will Set a Date and Discuss Other Matters for the Street Fair.

The street fair committee will meet tonight in the office of Attorney Ellis G. Cook to decide on a date when the street fair in Maryville will be held this year. The date had been fixed for the third week in September, but several objected to this time and wanted it later, or about the first week in October. All those interested either in the street fair or the question of dates are asked to attend the meeting.

Other plans will also be discussed relative to the fair, and within the next week or so solicitors will be out raising money for the event.

Mrs. Harry Egan, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, the past three weeks, returned to her home in Kansas City Friday morning.

BREWSTER OUT OF THE RACE.

Only Two Candidates Now in the Race for the Republican Nomination for Governor.

A. W. Brewster, who filed early last winter as a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, notified Cornelius Roach, secretary of state, Thursday that he no longer was a candidate, and requested him not to print his name on the primary ballots.

Mr. Brewster said some time ago he feared his law business would interfere with his making a campaign. About five weeks ago he became ill with rheumatism and has been unable to attend to his business since.

The withdrawal of Mr. Brewster from the gubernatorial race leaves the Republican contest open to John E. Swanger, state bank commissioner, and John C. McKinley. Mr. Brewster's friends, it is understood, will support Mr. Swanger in the race.

WILL HELP RURAL EDUCATION.

School Amendment Will Aid the Weak Districts and Consolidation of Schools.

The proposed school fund amendment to be voted on at the November election will pave the way for the state to do one or all of ten important things to benefit the public schools of the state. The additional fund would permit:

Aid in establishing rural high schools.

Aiding weak high schools in villages and towns.

Providing general state aid for high schools.

Guarantee the opportunity for a free high school education to every graduate of the elementary and rural school.

Consolidation of schools.

Encouraging teaching of agriculture, manual training, domestic science, domestic art and other practical and cultural subjects in high schools.

Guaranteeing a good teacher and a reasonable school term to every school district.

Purchase of libraries and other school equipment.

Reward of efficiency and effort in school work.

Aid to rural schools in meeting the demands of rural life.

Many rural teachers have been trained in the very schools they are teaching and are without even a high school, normal or university training. The school districts are often too sparsely settled to get a decent sum from the constitutional limit for taxes to pay for a four months school term. There are hundreds of school houses costing less than $300 each.

The rural school house is often unsanitary, cold and the cause of sickness to the children attending classes. There are many instances in Missouri where children of tender years are compelled to travel over poor, lonely, muddy or snow filled highways six and seven miles to reach the school house. With the adoption of the school amendment practically every instance of this kind could be avoided by the state assisting in furnishing conveyances and consolidating the school districts.

SOLDIERS TO CAMP

CO. F BOYS LEAVE SATURDAY AFTERNOON FOR NEVADA.

WILL REMAIN ONE WEEK

Annual Maneuvers of State Militia Requires Presence of Boys at Bad Time of Year.

Company F, Fourth regiment, N. G. M., leaves Maryville at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the Burlington for the camp of instruction to be held at Nevada, Mo., from the 13th to the 20th. The Fourth regiment is made up of the following companies: Company A at Tarkio, B at Unionville, C at Kirksville, D at Trenton, E at Hannibal, F at Maryville, G at Columbia, K at St. Joseph and M at Moberly. The Second regiment will also be in camp during the same time as the Fourth regiment.

Maryville, St. Joseph and Tarkio companies compose the first battalion and will go from St. Joseph to Nevada in a special car. The train will arrive in Nevada at 12:30 a. m. Sunday morning and the troops will detrain at 5:30 that morning.

It goes without saying that the soldier boys of Maryville will have some real experience of army life at the encampment this year and will enjoy themselves thoroughly. The army officers detailed with the National Guard this year have pronounced the present camp one of the most sanitary and healthful camps they have ever seen, and it has been called "The Health Resort." The visit of the troops to Nevada each year is looked upon as one of the gala events, and on Thursday, Governor's day, spectators to the number of 10,000 come out and view the ceremonies. We hope to hear great news of the doings of the local company boys at the camp this year.

The members of Company F are: Captain, Ezra Phipps; first lieutenant, Lester A. Bennett; second lieutenant, P. B. Charles; first sergeant, Loren De Motte; quartermaster sergeant, Walter Miller; sergeants, Guy Ray, Marion Smith, Ernest Yeaman, Clarence Phipps; corporals, John K. Ross, Clifford Skinner, Wood Forcade, Charles Cornell, Leroy Snipes; privates, John Irby, James Borroughs, Wilbur Dunbar, Hartford Lemon, George Liston, Hershel Conklin, Benny Myers, Victor Pinnell, Fred Shell, Charles Still, Charles Wilson, Jess Ray, Claud Curtis, Carl Curtis, Roy Brummitt, Arch Ledgerwood; cooks, Rufus Palmer and Foyes Smith, colored.

The local officers say that this camp is set at a very hard time, as a great many of the members are boys on the farm, and the heavy work at this time makes it impossible for some to get away.

In the Game Between the Cubs and Giants Thursday at the Normal Will Marshall Was Hurt.

In a game of base ball Thursday afternoon between the Cubs and Giants, two base ball teams of the Normal school, Will Marshall, while running from second to third base, was hit in the back with the base ball. The injury is not a serious one and Mr. Marshall will be able to resume his studies at the Normal in a day or so. The Cubs won the game Thursday by a score of 8 to 2.

The Pirates and Athletics, two other teams of the Normal, are playing this afternoon at the base ball grounds.

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE TO VISIT THIS SECTION WEDNESDAY.

GOVERNOR IN THE PARTY

Boosting for Good Roads and Getting Better Acquainted Object of the Trip.

The state board of agriculture will tour this section of the state next week in automobiles for the purpose of helping to boost and agitate good roads, to better acquaint the state board with road conditions and for an exchange of friendly relationship between the board and Northwest Missouri.

The schedule for Maryville and this part of the state has been made out, but will probably be changed. The party is to be in Maryville on Wednesday, July 17, and will take dinner here at the Linville hotel. Governor Hadley will probably be with the party.

The tour will leave the Automobile club offices, Midland building, Kansas City, at 10:30 a. m., Tuesday, in two divisions. One division will go over the Platte purchase route and the other over the Interstate trail to St. Joseph, where they will remain for the night. They will leave St. Joseph at 8 a. m., Wednesday, the Platte purchase division going over the Saints Highway to Maryville and then to Tarkio, and the Interstate trail division going over the Interstate trail to Bethany and then to Grant City. The Platte purchase division will return to St. Joseph over the St. Joseph-Omaha road and the Interstate trail division over the Mt. Ayr line.

It is hoped that local cars will join the tour wherever and whenever they may desire and help to call attention to Missouri's greatest need—good roads. Drivers of local cars are requested to always drop in at the rear of the line of cars and, in order to further prevent confusion and accidents, will refrain from passing ahead of any cars leading them, and to keep a good interval between cars while in motion. No cars should be in lead of the official cars. Official cars are those carrying members of the state board of agriculture or their invited committee guests.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Mrs. Omar Catterson returned Thursday night from Lebanon, In., where she attended the great home coming of natives of Boone county, July 2-4. On the 4th of July Boone county's new $300,000 court house was dedicated in the presence of the greatest crowd of people ever gathered in Lebanon. Mrs. Catterson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Susanna West, while there, and also visited other relatives and met many old friends and schoolmates.

The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the First Christian church met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon in a short business session and elected officers for the coming year, or rather re-elected their officers, as each was chosen to succeed herself, as follows: Mrs. J. S. Shinabargar, president; Mrs. Arch Frank, vice president; Miss Nellie Douglas, secretary; Mrs. J. D. Richey, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Condon, pianist; Mrs. Lee Crossan, assistant pianist. After the business meeting all went to Chautauqua park and held the Circle's annual picnic, which are always enjoyable affairs.

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. F. M. Martin. Subject, "Hope"—Romans 8:24. Two excellent papers were read, one by Mrs. C. D. Leffler on "Home Mission Schools" and the other by Mrs. O. L. Holmes on "How the Chains Are Broken." A quiz on the Philippines was conducted by Mrs. S. E. Farmer, the president of the society. The committee serving during the social hour comprised Mrs. J. A. Ford, Mrs. F. M. Martin and Mrs. A. B. Gibson.

Society Will Take Vacation.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. Price, with Mrs. Price and Mrs. S. M. Simpson as hostesses. Much business was transacted during the afternoon. The society voted $10 to the new M. E. church at New Conception, also voted to resume its Saturday markets, beginning Saturday, July 20, and also decided to take a vacation during the month of August, on account of the Chautauqua. A program was given after the business meeting. Matie Price, daughter of the hostess, recited "Two Little Girls I Know," and Mrs. Fred McClaron also gave a reading, "Penny Sad and Penny Glad." Miss Isora Mutz sang "Winter Lullaby." During the serving of refreshments Matie Price gave several numbers on the player piano.

Will Attend Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Shoemaker and their daughter, Miss Esther, and Mr. Oliver Bovard will leave Saturday for Lawson, Mo., where they will attend the wedding of Miss Marguerite Watkins to Mr. David Shoemaker Boyd of Omaha. The wedding will take place Sunday, July 14, at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Watkins. The bride and groom will leave for the east soon after the ceremony. Both Miss Watkins and Mr. Boyd are well and most favorably known to Maryville's young society folk. Miss Watkins has been a house party guest at the Shoemaker home each summer for the past four years in company with four other girls, her sister, Miss Caroline Watkins; Miss Ted Okell and Miss Louise Sallander of Fort Madison, Ia., and Miss Olive Lattin of Terre Haute, Ind., who is now Mrs. Gordon Murray of Muskogee, Okla. These annual house parties at the old Shoemaker home are well remembered by our young people, for they brought many good times for two and four weeks at a time each summer. The hostess and her guests were classmates at Hardin college, Mexico, Mo. The bridegroom-to-be is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker, and the only son and heir of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Boyd of Kansas City, who are also frequent visitors to our city. He is a specialty man for the Armour Packing company, with headquarters in Omaha. He visits the principal cities of the country for his company and is considered one of the company's most valuable men in his line of work.

After the regular business session Mrs. Laura Moore, district deputy president, conducted the installation ceremonies, assisted by Mrs. Amanda Sipes, grand marshal; Mrs. Jennie Thompson, past noble grand, and Mrs. Warren, retiring noble grand. The elective officers are Mrs. Dora Vert, noble grand; Mrs. Verna Murphy, vice grand. The appointive officers are Mrs. Amanda Sipes, right supporter to the noble grand; Mrs. Mary Woods, left supporter to the noble grand; Miss Oma Robey, right supporter to the vice grand; Mrs. Zetta Broyles, left supporter to the vice grand; Mrs. Laura Moore, chaplain; Mrs. Dovia Howland, warden; Miss Permelia Eads, conductor; Mrs. Myrtle Whaley, outside guard; Miss Nannie Pride, inside guard; Miss Rose Frazee, musician. After the installation a delightful ice cream and cake luncheon was served by the subordinate lodge, the I. O. O. F., which the Rebekahs highly appreciated. There were a large number of visitors present from St. Joseph, Wilcox and Burlington Junction, a number of them State Normal students.

The decorations were the same as on Thursday morning and the same color scheme of green and white was carried out in the serving. The game prize, a hand-painted china plate, was won by Mrs.

TRACES OF AL MARTZ FOUND IN ST. JOSEPH BY OFFICIAL.

WAS MARRIED AGAIN?

He is Wife Deserter and Bigamist if Second Marriage Occurred to Mrs. Anderson.

The authorities today are on the track of Al Martz, the man who deserted his wife in Maryville this week and an arrest will be made if he is found. Traces of Martz was found in St. Joseph Thursday by Chief of Police Moberly, and on Friday Sheriff Tilson went to that city and will probably return with the man.

The officials learned last night that Martz went to St. Joseph with Mrs. Anderson, who lived on East Second street. In a letter written to her brother, Ed Moore, she states that she was married to Martz on Tuesday evening at the court house at St. Joseph, but on examining the marriage license records in that city their names can't be found, according to one of the officials who looked over the records. In the letter she told her brother that she would send for her seven children the last of the week, and that Martz and her had taken rooms in that city, but she did not give the address.

Mrs. Martz and her baby, born Saturday, were taken to St. Francis hospital late Thursday afternoon, arrangements having been made by the charity board. Her two other children, a girl 4 years old and a boy 18 months old, were given to Mrs. Hiram Edwards of East Fourth street, who will care for them at present.

If Martz married Mrs. Anderson, as stated in her letter, he will be charged with another crime, that of bigamy. In the letter received by Mrs. Moore, her sister stated that Martz told her that his wife had died a year ago and that he was a single man. There is another charge against Martz, that of wife desertion.

OPERATION FAILED.

B. L. Moore, Unable to Withstand Shock, Died Thursday.

Burton Llewellyn Moore, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Clearmont, died at St. Francis hospital Thursday night, after an illness since Monday, July 1.

Mr. Moore was stricken suddenly with appendicitis last Monday, and he was brought to St. Francis hospital Monday afternoon by his physician, Dr. W. B. Heryford of Clearmont. He rallied considerably after reaching the hospital, and it was thought for a while that an operation would not be necessary, but he grew worse and the operation was found necessary to prolong his life. Owing to his advanced age he was unable to rally from the operation. He had been in good health previous to his illness.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Moore family home in Clearmont, and will be conducted by Rev. C. H. Owens of the Clearmont Baptist church.

Mr. Moore was 79 years old the 30th of June.

He was born near Trenton, Tenn., and came to the Clearmont country and settled there as a farmer fifty years ago, and had been a resident of this county ever since. He followed farming a number of years, and then went into the hardware business in Clearmont, but retired a good many years ago.

Forty-seven years ago he married Miss Mildred Carpenter of Clearmont, a sister of the late George Carpenter of that place, who survives her husband at the age of 70. Six children were born to them, all of whom are living, and are George Moore of Fort Smith, Ark.; James Moore of Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. John Burch of Clearmont; William Moore, at home in Clearmont, and Mrs. Albert Neidel, living north of Maryville.

Mr. Moore was a member of the Masonic lodge at Clearmont.

On Trip to the East.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crow will leave Saturday for a month's trip through the east. They will attend the national photographers' convention at New York City, and will spend a greater part of their time in the east in that city.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce Martin H. Borrusch of Polk township is a candidate for the nomination of sheriff of Nodaway county, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the August primary.

It is probably true, as stated in the article from the American Issue reprinted in The Democrat-Forum Thursday, that the brewing interests of the state would be greatly pleased to see Anderson Craig defeated for the state senate, but we believe the article does Mr. O. B. Hudson a gross injustice by making him appear to be, by inference, at least, the candidate of the brewing interests. Mr. Hudson is known as a high minded man, a good citizen, and one in every respect worthy of the confidence and suffrage of the Democratic voters. It was not our purpose in publishing the article to cast any aspersions whatever on Mr. Hudson, but rather to show that Mr. Craig's course in the senate had been correctly foretold by the enemies he made while a member of the house.

THE LIFE OF A NEWSPAPER MAN.

With the job of the newspaper man travels a silent companion. Trouble is him name and Work is his sister. Seven days out of six old man Trouble is on the job and the rest of the time his sister looks after his interest. The newspaper man is between the devil and the deep blue sea during his waking hours and the chances are that his dreams are distributed by gaunt specters of the day's events. If he asks questions he is impertinent, and if not he does not know his business. If he is observant, he is nosey and if not he cannot deliver the goods. If he hangs around he is in the way and if not something is sure to happen while he is away. He must depend on others for information and if he does they forget to tell him. If he honors official requests to suppress that story about Bill Jones because Bill's first wife was a second cousin of a dear friend of Soandso, he is a good fellow, but he is not doing his duty to his paper or to the public. He depends on the official for his information, but he depends also on the paper for his salary. If he suppresses the story he is looking for another job, and if he does not he does not get the news.

A preacher in Los Angeles once delivered a violent sermon in which he denounced the newspapers and all of those connected with them as liars and crooks. The next day they offered him the city editor's desk of one of the great dailies in order that he might see the conditions under which a newspaper was made. He held down the desk two hours and then made a public apology, saying that men who would work day in and day out under such a strain as did the staff of a newspaper were almost inhuman and due allowance should be made if they made mistakes.—Exchange.

ARCHBALD GOT BUT ONE VOTE

Personal Friend in House Showed Confidence in Accused Judge.

SENATE WILL SIT IN JUDGEMENT

House Adopted Articles of Impeachment by Vote of 222 to One—May Recess Till November Before Beginning Trial.

Washington, July 12.—The house of Representatives adopted, by a vote of 222 to 1, articles of impeachment against Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States commerce court.

Representative Farr of Pennsylvania cast the single vote against the bill of impeachment. Mr. Farr is a lifelong friend, who has all along voiced confidence in Judge Archbald's integrity. Only three members had spoken in the judge's defense. They were Farr, Bowman and Focht, of Pennsylvania.

The scene now shifts to the senate, which will sit in judgment in the case.

Disposition to Delay.

While there has been a disposition voiced in the senate to postpone the trial until the autumn, Chairman Clayton of the house committee on the judiciary and one of the prosecuting managers, declared his conviction that the senate would take up the impeachment soon.

Senator Clark of Wyoming, Republican, chairman of the senate judiciary committee, and Senator Simmons of North Carolina, the Democratic leader, expressed the view that the senate would acquiesce with Judge Archbald's wishes as to having an immediate trial or being allowed time to prepare his defense.

Before Senate Monday.

Among some of the Republican leaders it was suggested that while the case probably would be presented formally to the senate next Monday, that body might not do more now than to determine the date of the trial, and that the senate might recess until November, then proceeding with the hearing, with a probability of completing the case before the Christmas holidays.

The impeachment grows out of charges that, while occupying a federal bench, Judge Archbald was connected with a negotiation for valuable culm bank properties in Pennsylvania and with other questionable financial transactions, and with using his official position to attempt the enrichment of himself and certain friends.

Farr Demands Quorum.

For the opposition to the impeachment, Representative Farr bore the brunt of the battle. He demanded a quorum at the outset, saying the judge was virtually on trial for his life. Only three score members were present. Mr. Clayton insisted that the membership were thoroughly familiar with the evidence.

Representative Sterling of Illinois said he first thought the charges were trumped up by "disappointed litigants or disgruntled lawyers," but now he felt the testimony sustained the impeachment counts.

MINE EXPLOSION KILLS EIGHT

After Accident Two Men Are Brought Out Alive, But Severely Burned.

Moundsville, W. Va., July 12.—Eight miners are believed to have been killed by a gas explosion in the Panama mine of the Ben Franklin Coal company here.

Immediately after the explosion a rescue party penetrated the workings and returned with William Hupp and Joe Minalin, miners, who were so severely burned it is believed they cannot survive.

Another rescue party was sent into the mine later, but with small hope of finding other men alive.

Lindsey Refuses "Dry" Offer.

Enid, Ok., July 12.—Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver refused to allow his name to be placed before the National Prohibition convention as a candidate for president, stating that his alliance with the Progressive party made the acceptance impossible. The offer, coming apparently from a number of friends in the convention, was telegraphed to Mr. Lindsey here.

J. W. Morris, Candidate for Representative on the Democratic Ticket.

J. W. MORRIS.

To the Democratic Voters of Nodaway County, Missouri:

I wish to take this means of further announcing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for representative of this county, subject to your decision at the primary election held August 6th. It is almost needless to say that I have been a life-long advocate of the principles of Democracy. That the teachings of Democracy are and have been correct needs no further proof than the fact that a strong following of the Republican party are now willing to correct the many wrongs the Democracy of this country have been clamoring for, if given a chance. I am still willing to stand on the platform of my party and the principles enunciated therein; I still have faith that when the state platform is adopted it will contain and deal with such matters that every plank will be a jewel; that it will be big enough, broad and good enough that every good citizen will not be able to find fault. Therefore I have no hesitancy in stating in advance that it will please me.

If the Democrats of Nodaway county honor me with this nomination and the people of the county elect me to this office it will be the pride and ambition of my life to make a little history for Nodaway county in the coming legislature. Having made the race in 1896 for railroad and warehouse commissioner of this state, and coming within a few votes of getting the nomination, I had the opportunity to form an extensive acquaintance in almost every county in the state. This, in connection with the further fact that Missouri will have a Democratic governor and an overwhelming majority in the legislature, would give me an opportunity to accomplish more for the county and state than could one who has not had the experience and wide acquaintance required in order to do things in such a body of lawmakers.

Should I be your choice for representative, I shall not be subject to embarrassment by ante-election promises. I shall try to represent the whole county, and be governed by your expressions. I believe we are now burdened with too many laws, and that great good could be accomplished for the people of the state by the repeal of many of our statutes and the amendment of others. I am in favor of amending the automobile law so that instead of the license being paid into the state treasury it should be paid into the county treasury, where the applicant resides, and the money thus paid become a part of a good road fund. This would be quite an income for above purpose, and would put the license money where it should go. I would be in favor of amending the inheritance tax law so that said income would go to the good roads fund, the same as the automobile license money. I would take great pride in looking after our Normal school, so that it would not be hindered or weakened by lack of financial support.

Having spent several years as a teacher in the schools of this and other states, I have the greatest interest in our public schools. I believe the rural school should be so developed that any boy or girl who must depend on them wholly for their educational development will not be compelled to go through life handicapped. I consider them of greatest importance, and anything suggested to make our country schools better will receive my most honest and hearty support. This in a general way gives you some idea of the line of work I would be interested in if elected to this important position. If my platform is in harmony with your views, when you go to the primary August 6th cast your vote for John W. Morris for representative.

Very respectfully,
J. W. MORRIS.

It Will Be a Good Year

Corn, wheat, oats, potatoes, tobacco and all the other staple products of the farm promise a larger yield this year than last, according to the July bulletin of the department of agriculture, and the season is now so well advanced that the promise of July is reasonably certain of complete fulfillment at the end of the harvest.

The prosperity of the country at large is bound up with the prosperity of the farmer, and since this is to be a good year for him it will be a good year all around. After the farmer sells he buys, and so the effects of a bountiful harvest diffuse themselves throughout every class.

But the signs that this is to be a good year for the moral and political well being of the people are no less certain than those which presage a good year for crops. The forces opposed to the monopolistic control of industry and to the inequality of tariff protection were never better united than now, while on the other side there is disorganization and bitterness.

The people have decided that laws which give one class advantage over another in securing for themselves the products of industry and the gifts of nature are wrong and that they shall be changed so that the profits of this prosperous year and of the years to come shall stay where they belong and not be absorbed into the pockets of privilege.—St. Louis Republic.

Miss Lillian Clark, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. T. Clark, and family at the Linville, returned to her home in Savannah Thursday evening.

A Hard Winter Coming?

The severe weather last winter killed many domestic or "tame" fruit trees and shrubs, but it seems to have stimulated wild growths to unprecedented vigor of production. The walnut and hickory nut trees in Fairmount park are burdened, and the nuts are nearly twice as large as is usual at this season. The haws and wild crabapples hang in innumerable clusters, and birds already are feasting on the most generous supply of mulberries ever known in this locality.

There is a prophecy of another severe season next winter if an old sign proves true. The pine trees in the park are producing a crop of cones conspicuous for their size and numbers, a certain indication, the weather wise say, that a hard winter is in prospect.—Kansas City Star.
